

Celebrate Women's History Month In March

Through the Looking Glass of Advertising: A History of Women in the Workplace

THAT WAS THEN

THIS IS NOW

Join Connie Glaser, best-selling author and syndicated columnist, on a trip down History Lane to acknowledge the journey and accomplishments of women in the workplace. The perfect program to celebrate Women's History Month!

Described as "upbeat and uplifting," this interactive multi-media presentation captures the image of working women as portrayed in advertising for the last 70 years. From Rosie the Riveter to today's techno-woman, Connie provides an extraordinary journey chronicling the evolution and influence of women in the workplace.

Prepare to be inspired, informed, and entertained.

CONNIE GLASER is the country's leading expert on Women's Leadership and Communications. A best-selling author and columnist, she has appeared on the Today Show, CNN, and NBC Nightly News. A dynamic speaker, Connie has keynoted at top women's forums around the globe with clients including FedEx, AT&T, Time Warner, McKinsey, Johnson & Johnson, Xerox, ESPN, PricewaterhouseCoopers, and the U.S. Navy.

For more information, call Virginia Means at 252.714.6448